You will feel the need of a toddler bed if you have a baby or a toddler at home. It is always better to have a folding toddler bed for the simple reason that it takes less space to store and when you are traveling, you can take them with you and give your baby the homelike environment to sleep. Some people also prefer rollaway bed for kids and as the prices of those beds are generally high they go for rollaway bed rental which is more convenient.

As far as folding toddler beds are concerned, they are light in weight and easy to carry. You can choose the highest size available for toddlers and even then, it would not require much space for the storage. When choose a toddler bed there are different things to look out for. It should be a combination of light frames with strong materials. The bed should be comfortable with the edges raised above the level of the beds. The cushions and the mattress should be non allergic for the safety. There are different verities available in the market. Some of them look really cool and gorgeous but they should not be mistaken to be most easy to assemble and comfortable too..

Some people prefer to rent the beds as they are bit bigger in size than the new born beds and costly too. When the toddler grows, it becomes useless and you require storing it unnecessarily. These factors can be avoided through rental. There are some agencies which rent out these beds but you always need to be sure of the safety and hygiene while making such a deal.
