Article published on March 16th 2012 | Home Improvement

India is popular for its various ethnic craft items. Indian craft work is a combination of fine design and aesthetic spirit. India has a rich heritage of art, tradition and culture and also India being a multicultural region offers a varied range of handicraft work. There are many online stores that offer these items so that you can buy them and get a feel of Indian culture at your home. Below is the list of highly usable and necessary items that an Indian flavor to your homes dÃ©cor:

Bedspreads, Quilts, Coverlets & Throws: These bedspreads can give a new definition to your room, as these bedspreads are highly traditional and well designed. India bedspreads are handcrafted and have traditional patterns, embroideries and colors. The floral embroidery and patch work on the bedspreads gives a royal sense to your room.

Bass art works: Indian brass works which are beautifully sculptured in wall hooks, door handles and on brass pulls add ethnic style to wall and door. Various sculptures of animals, birds, god and goddess can be found on hooks and door handles which are very attractive and beautiful.

Painting: You can also find various paintings on mythology and astrology, elephants and animals, daily life of royalty, Mughal art and village life painting which can add Indian flavor to your decor home. Handmade and unique painting of RadhaKrishna, portraits of Maharajahs, Maharanis, Queens, Kings, aristocrats, and Mughal leader can give an attraction piece of art to home dÃ©cor.

Tapestries: The beautiful handcrafted Indian wall hanging can add an ethnic style to your home decor. Indian tapestries and wall hangings have bright and vibrant colors and have textures with traditional Indian textile design that are crafted well and have amazing look. The door and window dÃ©cors have round, square and rectangular patch works. These wall hangings are produced by hand using traditional silk screen printing techniques. Images of elephants, peacocks, camels and Indian gods can be seen on the wall hangings.

Bedspreads, Quilts, Coverlets & Throws: India bedspreads are handcrafted and have traditional patterns, embroideries and colors. These bedspreads can give a new definition to your room as these bedspreads are highly traditional and well designed. The floral embroidery and patch work on the bedspreads gives a royal sense to your room.

Pillows and cushions: You can find beautifully designed patchwork pillows, velvet cushions, block printed cushions and embroidered cushions. Indian pillows and Indian cushions are beautifully hand crafted. As far as style is concerned, you may often find them in intricate and ornate patterns. These patterns are amazing and can be can easily suited to their surrounding context. The style easily matches the sofa, bed, or chair you wish to place it on.

Indian handicrafts are easily available in online store. They add beauty and attraction to your home and can offer ethnic style to your home decor.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/home-improvement-articles/indian-handicraft-can-add-ethnic-flavor-to-your-home-d-cor.htm - Article Side

Dani Dechter - About Author:

Dani Dechter came to India for the first time in 2006 and met his wife, who was also travelling in India for the first time, while motoring through the deep gorges and high peaks of the vast Himalayan range in the North of India. Travelling together through the rest of India the couple developed a love for the handicrafts, textiles and art work they saw everywhere being made with passion and creativity by skilled artisans. After returning home for a year, the couple decided to come back to India to start EyesofIndia.com, a company that would make quality a Indian tapestries, Indian handicrafts, textiles, a Indian Cushions and other unique items available to the world directly from India.

Article Keywords:
India bedspreads,brass pulls,Mughal art,Indian tapestries,Indian Cushions

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!