Your childâ€™s first birthday party is something that you as parents must be really looking forward to. By now, you must have already planned the entire event mentally many-a-times. In all your planning, you must have thought about the kind of cake youâ€™ll order, the theme of the party, what would be given as return gifts, what will your baby wear, the decoration and the music too. No doubt, you must have ensured every detail is taken care off. Noâ€¦ are you not sure, if you have planned everything meticulously? Then donâ€™t worry we will help you out with the event planning. All you have to do is just follow the below tips.

Tip no. 1 â€“ The cake. The cake is the most important part of your childâ€™s birthday party and you should leave no stone unturned to ensure it is of the best quality and tastes phenomenal. You can go for a fruitcake. Children really enjoy the tangy sweet taste of cut fruit pieces that come as surprise bites while one is eating it. In addition, the way you display the cake is important too. We suggest you choose a custom-made laminate countertop to keep the cake. You can get your childâ€™s picture or family pictures imprinted on the laminate countertop and then keep the cake on top of it. A perfect way to display your childâ€™s first birthday cake!

Tip no. 2 â€“ The decor. You must have heard that every perfect moment needs a perfect setting. Likewise, when you plan to host your childâ€™s first birthday party the best place to do so will be not at a hotel or resort but in your own house. Invite everyone to your home and decorate your home in a way that everyone looks at it all with eyes wide open. We suggest choose a theme for the birthday party and recreate a similar setting. You can use decorative variety of laminate that will come handy when you want to recreate a dream setting. Whether you choose a retro, a festive, or a classic look, you can choose from the available variety of decorative laminate to suit your requirement.

Tip no. 3 â€“ The entertainment. No birthday party is complete without entertainment. Sometimes it gets very shabby to get a DJ dance floor as small children may slip and trip on the floor thereby injuring them in the bargain. You obviously do not want such mishaps to occur during your childâ€™s first birthday party. We suggest you donâ€™t go for a dance floor on hire, rather get a laminates wood flooring done. The advantages of getting laminates wood flooring done would be that the children who dance on the floor would stand firm on it, the flooring will have no ugly cracks and crevices leaving scarring impression on it after the party, and it will well compliment the thematic look and feel you adopt.

These are just a few tips helping you prepare for you childâ€™s first birthday party. Follow these and make your childâ€™s first birthday very memorable. For more tips and information, you can write to us too.
