Article published on June 30th 2012 | Home Improvement

Decorative and practical home accessories look great in any home and help you to add those finishing touches to perfect your dÃ©cor. The range of home accessories that are available is vast and there are different accessories and soft furnishings to suit all property styles and design tastes. Rustic country style home accessories are very popular at present and these feature lots of wood in various colours and finishes and are ideal for anyone wanting to create a rustic yet chic country feel for their home dÃ©cor. Home accessories are available for all rooms of the house and there are lots of accessories for decorating childrenâ€™s bedrooms as well as adult spaces.

Patchwork quilts are a very popular item when it comes to home accessories. The great thing about patchwork quilts is that you donâ€™t need to keep changing your duvet cover sets as they go out of fashion or as styles change as patchwork quilts just go over the top of them and cover the duvet so it doesnâ€™t really matter what style of duvet cover you have on underneath.

Patchwork quilts can provide extra warmth in winter and many people will leave them on at night. Some people prefer to have patchwork quilts for decorative purposes and will take them off the bed when they go to sleep. Patchwork quilts are often sold by general home accessories retailers and the range of designs and colours will vary between retailers. Popular designs include union jack themes, stars and stripes and floral designs.

There are lots of great home accessories for using in the kitchen and these include items such as memo boards, chopping boards, storage boxes, recipe book holders, bread boxes wine racks and other items. Home accessories for the bathroom are also very popular and items include toothbrush holders, soap dishes, toilet brushes, tissue boxes, jugs, jewellery dishes and full matching ranges of all items. Lots of people really enjoy furnishing their homes with stylish and decorative home accessories and patchwork quilts and they take great pleasure in spending time shopping for these items to find home accessories that are perfect for their

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/home-improvement-articles/the-range-of-home-accessories.htm - Article Side

Mary Porter - About Author:

Article Keywords:
Home Accessories, Patchwork Quilts

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!