What is a decorative fireplace really for? It is for decoration purposes only. It really doesnâ€™t keep you warm but it might look nice. Decorative fireplaces are mostly for people who donâ€™t have the ability to install a proper fireplace or then they donâ€™t simply want to have real fire around. With decorative fireplace you still get some feeling of what it would be like to have a fireplace and fire as an element is naturally one of the strongest ones and it creates a certain kind of mysterious atmosphere.
