Article published on January 18th 2012 | Home Improvement

The most populous of the autonomous communities of Spain, AndalucÃ-a is popular also as a tourist destination both with the Spanish and travellers from other European countries. Spain villa holidays are all the rage in places like Mijas and Costa del Sol, attracting thousands of visitors every year. Villas in Spain to rent come fully furnished with all the amenities you will need during the stay. Luxury villas with a stay in cook and maids are also available if you have decided to go all out for this vacation.

Costa del Sol Villas to Rent

Costa del Sol or the Sunny Coast as it is popularly known is a reputed tourist destination. Once a sleepy fishing village, the city has been transformed into a tourist hotspot in the last 50 years. The place has a rich historical background with many beaches and restaurants to interest the tourist. Renting a villa is the best way to enjoy Costa del Sol and you have plenty of options to choose from. Budget villas and apartments, Costa del Sol villas with pool, luxury villas both big and small can be rented out to suit your requirements and budget.

Villas in Mijas

Situated in the province of Malaga, Mijas is famous for its golf courses. It has a total of seven courses and boasts of the largest golf resort in Spain. A vacation in Mijas is definitely paradise on earth for golf lovers and for the others there are the museums and souvenir shops. The rent for private villas Mijas range anywhere from Â£800 to Â£1300 for a week, changing according to the time of the year. This is usually for a four bedroom villa with attached bathrooms and a pool. The size of the villa can vary depending on what you want and this means a corresponding increase or decrease in price.

Renting AndalucÃ-a Villas

Although vacation villas are supplied by many people in Spain and AndalucÃ-a in particular, only few can be called a vacation home. Family run businesses are popular and highly rated so find yourself a reliable company that provides these villas. Luxury villas Spain can be rented all through the year for anywhere between 4 days and a monthâ€™s time. Most of them have management appointed staff to assist you with anything you may need. Make sure that these well appointed villas that you rent have been inspected and contain all the amenities you will require for the duration of your stay.
