Trapped in a room or a car- this is something that we might have sometime experienced in our life. Actually sometime we forget our keys or they are lost or misplaced. We try our level best but can't collect the fact where we actually kept them or where they were lost. Imagine yourself in a similar condition. You are locked in a room or even worse in a cupboard, I know the later would sound bit crazy but sometimes it can happen, we just entered in our cupboard to clean and clear up the mess and some naughty kid just banged the door and locked it. In few seconds the keys were lost. You cry and try to open the locks but in vain. Some kids are terribly naughty! LOL

And this thing can in fact happen with kids as well, and this is certainly a more probable case. Kids enter the rooms and lock it up, but when are about to come out there find it difficult to reach the handle and turn it or some times they loose the keys inside the room. The most common incident of this type is of getting locked inside the cars.

Even your family or you are seems helpless. In that case the option that you are left with is if you can break open the door. But that also may not be possible in all cases. Hey, did I just say the last option. We are certainly mistaken. Yes you do have another option as well. Pick up your telephone diary and find the number to local emergency locksmith in Kingston.
