Car insurance has been made mandatory by law. But with the rise in car insurance premium rates, it is becoming more and more difficult to abide by this law. Cheap car insurance is an escape but finding one doesnâ€™t have any escape. It requires lot of research work and even some sweat if not done smartly. At first, quest to get the cheapest car insurance sounds very much like a treasure hunt but with these small tips it would as easy as sipping coffee.

Determine the type of coverage your car needs: The first step in buying any insurance would be to know how much coverage you need. This would depend upon the type of the car and may be the locality. Depending upon the requirements, one can choose from a fully comprehensive plan, third party fire, theft or third party only. Premium amount also depends upon this selection. To pay less every month one can opt for a high deductible and out of pocket policy.

Drill down the history and reputation of a company: You definitely donâ€™t want the cheapest customer service or a poor claim processing chain. So it is advisable to go with reputed brokers or vendors only. Looking for ratings and reviews online can also be helpful in determining the service of a company. Reviews can aid in judging the customer service of the vendor and will also reveal their positive points, if any. If you find more number of negative reviews then go for some other vendor.

Focus on policy features as well: Sometimes the excitement to get the cheapest car insurance overrides the importance of policy features. It is necessary to understand the policy features so that you donâ€™t end up paying more for something not even worth it. Understanding the terms and conditions of the policy is must before finalizing it. There are certain terms that may be misleading, it is better to clear them out before hand. Policy features are equally important, so one should never for a plan with limited features just because it is cheaper.

Compare car insurance rates online: As I told in the very beginning, if you follow these steps, finding the cheapest car insurance would be as easy as sipping a coffee. Let me tell you how. There are websites that will allow comparing quotes from different vendors by simply pressing few keys. It can bring quotes from 100 or more different brokers at the monitor. So you can have the ease of comparing car insurance quotes without even moving out of your chair.
