In today's society, many patients are eager to sue over the smallest things. As a result, the need for physicians to have a strong medical malpractice policy is absolutely critical. We have been able to provide a quality product because we focus on the needs of our policyholders, not stockholders.

Medical liability insurance is not as difficult to shop for as it once was. On our website, magmutual.com, we provide the ability to get quotes within minutes. This allows you to find out how much the malpractice insurance will cost you on a monthly basis without picking up the phone. Regardless of your schedule, you have ease of shopping for insurance at your fingertips.

We understand the desire to have a good doctor liability insurance policy. Our Board of Directors is comprised of physicians, which means that they are the ones determining what the policy should and shouldn't have. Other medical insurance companies don't have this medical-driven background. We are uniquely qualified to provide the medical malpractice insurance products that we offer.

Our focus is to help the medical community. Medical malpractice is a serious problem, yet we offer innovative and affordable solutions. You won't find a product like this anywhere else on the internet, which means making comparisons between the companies is easier than ever.

When you compare our liability products against others, you will see that we offer an exceptional product. Protection is of the utmost importance and that what we give our policyholders. If there is a time where you need representation, you need a good policy to stand behind you. We provide the financially sound product you need for protection.

About MagMutual: As the largest medical professional liability insurer in the southeastern states we serve, and the eighth largest in the U.S., the business decisions we make are driven by the needs of our physician policyholder-owners - not by stockholders. And with a Board of Directors comprised of physicians, our commitment to providing unwavering defense of the personal and professional reputations of our policyholders, superior customer service and innovative business, financial and insurance solutions to help those in the medical community meet their professional, business and personal goals will never change.
