Memories of childhood always stay with us. It is interesting to note that memories of childhood are strongly connected with motherâ€™s kitchen. The way a mother cooks food and feeds her children stays with the children through a really long time in life. The ambience and aroma of motherâ€™s kitchen is something that stays with people for a really long time.

Everyone remembers eating the meals with his/her siblings in childhood. Motherâ€™s cooking and happily feeding all the children is remembered for a really long time. The rustic feel and the homey appeal of the motherâ€™s kitchen are unmatchable and unbeatable. The fresh smell of home-made spices and pickles in the kitchen add to the overall aura and warmth in a kitchen!

Here are some ideas to create that perfect country feel in the kitchen-

Having stone countertops in place of plastic countertops is a good idea. Plastic countertops can also be replaced by wood veneer or walnut veneer countertops. The veneer and stone surfaces would help you create a rustic appeal to the whole kitchen. Glass cabinets also are a good option to create a country feel in the kitchen as one can peek through these easily!

A kitchen island would also add to the overall appeal of a country kitchen. The pickle jars, spice bottles and fresh vegetables have to be placed on a kitchen island so that one can see these as one walks into the kitchen and feel the freshness of food. The feeling of abundance comes by, only when one is able to see the food items and is able to access these easily.

Ceramic utensils instead of melamine crockery or crystal plates would add to the whole country feel. You need to buy ceramic pots and plates to ensure an overall country kitchen appeal in the area. The whole earthen feel would make your kitchen look lovely and would also add a lot of warmth in the area.

You need to accessorize the kitchen area using earthen pots. Hang some pots here and there with plants growing inside them. You can also keep these by the window and also place one of these on your veneer wood table in your kitchen. You need to opt for thick curtains with floral patterns to ensure a natural and rustic feel to the kitchen area. Hanging family photographs is also a good idea to complete the look of a country kitchen!
