Do you want to decorate your new home or makeover your existing home but don't have much money? Decoration doesn't have to cost a fortune and can be totally done on budget. Here are few tips for you to start with.

Change furniture arrangements, you can swap furniture between different rooms to create a different effect. It's really good option and you don't have to spend a dime. However, it is the same furniture after all and it won't take long before you get bored.

Change seats and pillows

You can sell your old sofa after all the wear and tear and buy one of the cozy bean bag chairs which are great for small areas. Giant bean bag chairs can take an entire family on it and they don't cost as much as traditional couches. Beanbag chairs come in different fabrics and colors to match your decoration.

You can find great deals on bean bag chairs online at reputable websites that offer bean bag chairs on sale. You can complete the set by purchasing bean bag pillows, bean bag ottomans, and even kids bean bag chairs for the children's room.

You can also create instant makeover by buying different pillows with multiple colors that you can change frequently as they don't cost much. There are wide varieties of bean bag pillows to choose from.

Paints

Choose light shades to bring the illusion of space for small rooms and warm colors for more cozy effects, this will obviously depend on your own taste.

Frames and wall hangings

Frames can liven up the room and you can buy very nice and cheap frames from flea markets and garage sales. Add family pictures and hang them in a nice way to create whole new look. Don't overdo it, keep the wall neat and tidy.

You can always make lots of things yourself and add it to your home. Search online for do it yourself 'DIY' crafts and you will find great projects that you can get their materials from $1 stores. Besides being cheap, it is really great feeling to make things yourself, they might not be perfect but I'm sure they'll be beautiful.

Bean bag seats, pillows, wall hanging, and paints are the best things you can do to makeover your home without spending a fortune.
