How to Create Your Own Space by Donald Cohen

Article published on January 14th 2012 | Interior Design

No matter what style you prefer for your home; modern, contemporary, country, or classic. We all want to have our own special area where we can relax from all of life stresses and be able to just feel at home, the word home itself is all about security and comfort. You can easily create your own space without having to rob a bank to cover decoration expenses.

First of all think of where you want to have that place and how do you want it. Ask yourself whether you are having special place for yourself only or one that you can have guests in? Do you want to create new area or are you going to makeover an already existing one? Listing your requirements will help you determine what you want and guidelines of how to do it.

Seating is all you need to create your â€œme spaceâ€•. You can make your place for reading, watching TV or playing video games, just make sure that your seating is comfortable. Todayâ€™s foam filled bean bag chairs are a great alternative to traditional furniture. They come in a large variety of sizes, colors, and textures.

Bean bag seats are inexpensive compared to couches. They are made of durable materials. Bean bags are a great option for people decorating on a budget.

Floors are next on your list; there are a great variety of area rugs in the market. You can find great prices online and even at furniture stores.

Add a special theme to your hideaway. For example, if the place is made for reading, install some bookshelves or a basket to store books and magazines. If you want a romantic intimate area for you and your spouse, you may want to add warm colors, candles, and roses. Five foot bean bags or larger oneâ€™s are always a good place to get cozy.
