They believed that this new positive state will make us not only think of ourselves, but other people and the world as a whole. If we all work towards a common goal, we will truly be â€œoneâ€• â€“ everyone equal, a world without limits. It is an ideal way of thinking, but one that We hope becomes a reality: a world without war or violence, without a need for the police or armyâ€¦ a world of harmony.

These ancient thinkers, such as the Mayans,were heavily influenced by the galaxy and the stars around us. They believed that we would achieve greater strength and happiness, by being harmonious and being at one with our environment. The thought that we should appreciate our planet and every living thing more, is an amazing hope. These cultures also believed that we should value each other more, that we can be more positive and united; because in other people, are great qualities we find in ourselves. Many believed that promising change is something to strive forâ€¦ and at Amaya Interiors, we believe this as well.

The Amaya Vision is to always strive for excellence and spiritual development; for a world where there is more understanding, communication and beauty, and less suffering. Our services and ideals reflect some of the thoughts of these cultures; and our products and designs honor and reflect the beauty and harmony that is everywhere in the world. We hope that everything we do at Amaya Interiors, will bring positivity and harmony to your life.
