A client when comes to a marketing firm only thinks of one thing popularity of the product or service and how sales can be increased. Yes, marketing is important but equally critical for clientâ€™s knowledge is tracking of marketing programs. This article is an eye-opener for clients who leave it completely to the destiny of their product or service to the marketing firmâ€™s hand. We at Visini co believe in educating clients and doing business the ethical way.

Visini co gives equal importance to marketing and tracking of marketing campaigns. There is no point wasting clientâ€™s money, time and effort.

How do we plan our marketing campaigns?

At visini co. we follow a balanced and smart approach to marketing, lets walkthrough the marketing campaign process:

1. Understand the product/service and clientâ€™s vision thoroughly. This is done through rounds of meeting, reading company collaterals and conducting industry parallel research.

2. Then team members of Visini co analyze the target audience, their geography, demography, interests, dislikes, social behavior, online activity patters, spending pattern, motivating factors, etc. All this data helps us create a real target to hit upon. We donâ€™t want to just throw spear in dark!

3. Now is the time to brainstorm marketing campaigns that will be successful with this target audience. We gather statistics to prove our claims and then present our marketing plan to the client. Balance the campaign against clientâ€™s budget and growth expected. Taking one step at a time.

4. Then visini co. launch the campaign, track it closely, monitor every lead it generates, and donâ€™t let anything go waste. This is called optimum use of money and time.

5. Accurate tracking of marketing campaign gives us a clear picture of where we are going good and where not so good. So that immediate remedial measures can be taken and the campaign steered towards success. This is the main reason of marketing campaign success by visini co.
