Best marketing offering of 180Fusion's Guaranteed SEO Steve B

Article published on April 11th 2012 | Internet

Welcome back to 180Fusion's Online Marketing Tip of The Week. 180Fusion is a professional online marketing firm and offers money-back guaranteed SEO programs. Today, we'll be talking about the most commonly encountered and most commonly implemented tactics and ideas we deal with in our guaranteed SEO practice, a sort of basic overview of what our guaranteed SEO services offer, but with an instructional tone, so that you may experiment with your own SEO.

So, what are the basics of our Guaranteed SEO Services and how are they achieved?

Content: Be sure to have good, well-written, and unique content that focuses on your chosen keyword or keyword phrases related to your industry.

Meta Tags: Meta tags should be different on every page of your website if you want search engines to index them in the search results, which you most certainly do. This can be quite the workload, and one that our guaranteed SEO services team can implement professionally.

External Linking: Ensure you have links toward as many pages as possible. A search engine knows that, when quality web sites are linking to different pages on your site, you have something of value to users.

Site map: A big site needs a site map, which should be linked to from every page on the site. This will help the search engine crawlers find every page on your site more quickly and easily. If your site is smaller, however, don't necessarily neglect to include a site map.

Internal Linking: Verify that links to your site and within it use your keywords. For instance, if your target is cuteoverload.com, then link to "amazingly cute kittens" instead of a simple "click here". guaranteed SEO professionals rename links constantly.

Back Links: Links from educational ".edu" domains are ascribed significant value from search engines. Run a search for possible non-profit .edu sites that are looking for sponsors or leave blog comments on those websites with link back to your site. Links, especially those to your site's internal structure as opposed to its homepage from a highly ranked site are golden. High page rank additionally implies high trust, so the back links will help more.
