We all know the importance of news. It is one such thing that needs to reach every nook and corner of the country. In a country like India, where the culture is diverse and the there are so many varieties of languages, it is important that any news, however big or small it is reaches even the tiniest villages and towns. The India state news is one such necessity that should be present everywhere in the country. News is an important agency of information for people and that is what makes different news such as Punjab news, very significant. Newspapers, magazines and the internet are all very powerful sources of information and newspaper is one such thing that is of utter importance, especially in remote areas where television and radio are not as aplenty as the humble newspaper.

One more benefit of news in Hindi or any other regional language is that it is very comprehensible to any person who resides in India. Since the language is considered as the most preferred medium of communication and is spoken locally everywhere, it is a very convenient form of conveying the Punjab news to even rural folks. Many regions in the country are such, where it is difficult for people to get access to news. For such people the India state news is of greater importance rather than national and international news. Their interests do not lie in global economical conditions as they lie in the local happenings and developments.

Local and national news is generally related to developments in the fields of agriculture and farming. India is a nation of farmers and Punjab is a land of farming, and that is why the Punjab news mostly surrounds farmers and the different happenings in the agricultural world. Apart from that, there is also the India state news regarding the state politics and the local panchayat issues. The news in Hindi is of great assistance at such times to the locals as not everyone is well versed with English in the rural areas. The great advantage that this news provides is that it serves information to each and every person who needs to know it. Language should not be a barrier when it comes to gaining information about any small or big thing that affects ones daily life. It is indeed one such thing that is very important in todayâ€™s world, where so many things are happening at once and it is necessary for people to know what is happening, when and where.
