Article published on February 1st 2012 | Internet Business

On 29th December facebook launched a new feature called facebook timeline. With the help of this newly launched feature, you can able to create your own on-line scrapbook. You and your friends are capable to look at any activity, photo, video, status update that is added to your profile in the reverse order the day you join the facebook. This feature is divided into two parts. First part includes the facebook timeline cover and other part includes all those events which you are sharing with your friends as long as you have on Facebook. In this part you can see your photos, videos, maps, status and likes that you were doing at specific time in your Facebook life. Also the cover part includes the cover photo, profile picture, and personal information, your friends, photos and likes on the left side.

Your timeline cover photo is like your website header. You can use your personal photo or other cover photo also. Now many websites provide unique and stylish Facebook covers. You can choose random covers according to your interest from these websites and use it as your Facebook cover. You can change your timeline cover time to time according to your taste and interest. This will help your friends to know more about you and they can easily know your interests. You can also create your Facebook cover by own.

The cover picture dimensions are 849 by 312 pixels. You have to use only this dimension for your cover picture. People really love this unique outstanding picture area space. Business people use this space to promoting their products and services. In business point of view, this new feature is really very effective. They can use this cover picture area for marketing of their products and services to enhance their business. They can design their cover picture from the companies which providing Facebook timeline covers services. Business people can gain visibility of their customers and users through their cover. So, if your cover picture is effective and unique then it will really provide a benefit for your business.

Timeline cover is a great medium to highlight your personal interest and also to highlight your professional things like your services and products. This newly launched feature of Facebook is liked by everybody who uses it, because it provides better way to describe yourself and express your views more freely and broadly. Your cover photo is the first thing which users and your friends will see when they visit your profile page. So, business owners can provide a positive impact and gain users interest towards themselves by using perfect cover photo for their profile. And in personal point of view, Facebook timeline cover picture will provide a great impression on your friends.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/internet-business-articles/facebook-timeline-covers.htm - Article Side

MichaelVJordan - About Author:

a Smashing Cover is a website which provides a Facebook timeline covers to their users. For more detail please visit www.smashingcovers.com

Article Keywords:
facebook covers, facebook timeline covers, smashing covers

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!