I Know What I Want, and I Want It Now!

Iâ€™d like a job where I call the shots for a change.

With a WSI franchise, thatâ€™s exactly what you get. Once youâ€™re trained in our core approach and become a Certified Digital Marketing Consultant, your franchise is just that â€" yours. You make the money, you get to decide what to do with it. Youâ€™ll set your own hours, make your own decisions about staff, and in general itâ€™ll be your baby.

I donâ€™t want to deal with inventory.

Done deal. The WSI approach to franchising is just what youâ€™re looking for. WSI franchisees provide their clients with expert online marketing and branding consultation services. This approach doesnâ€™t require any kind of supply or physical products, just innovation and dedication.

I want to make more money.

Who doesnâ€™t? A WSI franchise is a great place to make money, as it turns out. Many franchises post profits in the first three years, some as soon as their first year if business is good. To make the comparison, putting money in a bank for three years at current interest rates will see you make back a few percent of the investment, while a franchise can reward you with 100 percent of that investment in the same amount of time.

I want to be part of something important!

We agree. And thatâ€™s precisely why we established the Make Child Poverty History (MCPH) program. This is an ongoing initiative to mobilize resources and bring together individuals and organizations in an effort to eradicate child poverty, one child, one village at a time.
