Emeralds have always been a favorite of many men and women all around the globe. Whether it is an emerald ring, necklace or earrings, emeralds have been successful in enticing women of all ages. This gemstone is really alluring and many people prefer emeralds over other gemstones because of its royal and classy touch. In ancient times, the kings and queens used to wear emeralds in many of their ornaments. Even their crowns were embedded with the emeralds. Emerald rings are very popular nowadays because of the immortality of this gemstone.

Emeralds are vibrant in colors. This gemstone is available in different shades of green. The blend of chromium and vanadium make an emerald vibrant in its color. You can easily get emerald rings in different designs and shapes in the market. The different shapes of emeralds include oval, pear, square, rectangle, heart and many more. These rings are perfect choice as the gifts for the occasions like birthdays, anniversaries, Valentineâ€™s Day and you can even propose your girlfriend with this ring. She would definitely appreciate your choice and then, you can start the new chapter of your life with an emerald ring. So, just bend on your knees and express your feelings to her.

Emerald engagement rings are a perfect choice for the union of the two souls. If you want to make the moments of your engagement memorable, then you must go for these rings. Emerald engagement rings would be a great option, if your future wife is born in the month of May. Emeralds are graded using 4 Câ€™s, just like the other gemstones. The 4 Câ€™s are color, crystal, clarity and cut. There are no magnifying equipments required to grade this gemstone.

Emeralds are needed to be carefully used and treated. There are some precautions that you must take while using any emerald jewelry. Do make sure that your emerald jewelry is kept away from the high temperature and bright sunlight, as it causes the emerald to dry up. You should not expose your emerald jewelry to any detergent or any cleansing chemicals because it will remove oil from this gemstone.

If you are going for an emerald ring, it is suggested to you to mount your emerald with gold and platinum. The color of gold perfectly complements the green color of the emerald. You can also go for titanium as it is a metal which is very fashionable nowadays.
