Article published on November 29th 2011 | Jewelry

To find a reliable gold buyer in Australia always take the help of web and verify the physical address. Selling jewellery to a certified or renowned gold buyers also fetch you a good amount of the current market price.

Looking for a gold buyer in Australia? If you have no prior experience in selling gold jewellery then it might be little bit confusing. Across Australia, hundreds of gold buyers eagerly waiting for people who want to sell gold jewellery and unwanted silver, platinum and diamond ornaments with the hope to get a good cash amount. But the concern is that certain gold buyers always try to take advantage of people who have never contacted a gold buyer in his/her life to sell gold jewellery or other precious metals.

Gold truly has a worth. But many gold buyers offer only a fraction of its actual price. So, it becomes a challenge how to find a reliable gold buyer who even offers gold exchange services. To make your search result oriented, take the help of web. If you browse then you will come across a list of gold buyers that express keenness in buying your gold or silver.

After you have made a list of the sellers and buyers of gold available in the market, then the next step would be comparing the prices they offer. Usually a renowned buyer will offer a standard price, usually 75-90%, compared to the prevailing market price or face value. So, find buyers who offer you such attractive percentage of the current market price.

Always look for an accredited gold buyer that has been in this business for a long time. Such buyers usually offer a good price with no hidden charges. For example, Premium Precious Metals, a premier gold buyer and gold exchange destination, has offer a whopping 75-95% of the current price of gold, silver and platinum. They carry ever work professionally and pay you cash or get it deposited into your given account within 24 hours. Because of such professionalism Premium Precious Metals s highly recommended.

Many reputed gold buyers even offer unique services taking the help of e-mail services. Interest individuals can drop a request with the necessary details and they will revert to you within a couple of days. As per your requirement, a team from the gold buyer will come and inspect the jewellery. And if everything goes well, then they will offer you a price against the jewellery. This mailing practice has made it possible for people who follow a busy schedule and still want to get rid of the unwanted jewellery.

Another important thing is if you are seeking for a reputed buyer; just do a quick check about the contact details. Many buyers come from nowhere and so raise suspicion. If pragmatic then verify the given physical address of the buyer by dialling the contact number mentioned on the website.

Many smart buyers follow a check using the Google Maps which you can also take the advantage and check the authenticity of the gold buyer.
