Having a solid jewelry collection can help you have a well put together and stylish look. This article will discuss some of the pieces that are great to have in your collection.

First of all, it is great to have a beautiful necklace that is simple and can be worn everyday. For many women of the Christian faith, a white gold cross necklace is the perfect piece for everyday wear. These come in very simple designs with just white gold or you can get white a gold cross necklace that has been embellished with a gemstone or a special design. This is such a universal piece that you can wear with almost any outfit and it can be dressed up or dressed down.

If you are not into a cross pendant, there are many different styles of pendants you can wear for a necklace. I have always loved the look of hearts and a sterling silver heart pendant is a great piece for everyday wear. There are many different designs that the jewelry makers have come up with using hearts and they are great for a cute detail that symbolizes love. I like to choose rings and earrings that have heart details as well because they are simple and pretty.

It is fun to have unique and funky pieces in your collection as well. With unique pieces you can add flair to a fun outfit for a night out with friends or a date. Evil eye bracelets have become very popular because they are said to bring good luck to the wearer and to ward of the evil eye. An evil eye bracelet will protect you from evil but they also come in very stylish designs. This is a piece that can add unique detail to your outfit and when your friends ask you about it, you will be able to tell them the special meaning of the bracelet.

Regardless of your style, there are a lot of basic pieces that you can add to your wardrobe that add interest to anything you wear.
