Education plays a very important in every oneâ€™s life, be it a person or be it a whole nation. Education is so powerful that it can give a way to success to any person or nation. Education is like a stepping stone towards success so people should always be ready to move towards this success. In this education our school helps us a lot in fact it plays a very key element in educating and it definitely help us to move further.

A school is an institution designed for the teaching of students under the direction of teachers. Most countries have systems of formal education, which is commonly compulsory. In these systems, studentsâ€™ progress through a series of schools. The names for these schools vary by country but generally include primary school for young children and secondary school for teenagers who have completed primary education. An institution where higher education is taught is commonly called a university college or university.

These school and colleges helps a lot because it is a very broad medium from where we get education. Traditionally we use to see that there was a pattern of Gurukul where the children use to stay and study. This pattern has gone through many changes travelling trough time. Things on the part of education level have definitely changed but few things which still remain are the residential schooling. It is in the same format as the Gurukul use to be, in simple language you can say that it also provides you residential along with education; you can stay and study in this school. Children stay and study in such school and go home only in vacations. The best advantage of such schooling is that the children who stay in such cities or state which is not too good with its education or the parents who want their children to study in schools available in metropolis can send their children to such schools. There are Residential schools in Noida which is quite good for such types of students who stay away from home and pursue education.

Talking about the other aspect of education in India we can see that Hindi and English both is a party of academics but in recent time where the country is developing we can see that English is becoming quite an important part of our education structure. Now days every parent wants their child to study in an English medium school. Hence, the English medium schools are quite in repo now days. There are English medium schools in Noida who can be beneficial for people interest in English study. There are many good coeducational schools in Noida too which can help the parents who want their child to study in coed school.
