Schools are the most important part in any children life. The children who are not sent to school are the one who didnâ€™t have an opportunity to enjoy the most amazing part of school. Education is something which keeps a lot of importance in every oneâ€™s life. Not only in a personâ€™s life, is even good for a country too. If a country wants to rise in its entire means then the only way towards it is education. Education is a very powerful means and the reason is that it gives you a chance towards development.

In a country like India which is a developing country it is really necessary that the education level increases in this country. If the education level will increase there will be an increase in the development level in the country. Without proper education there wonâ€™t be any good up liftment in the country. Education is necessary because if there will be education then only the people of the country will be rise in literacy level concluding to the removal of social evil and poverty. There will be more employment and the country will move further.

The government of India is taking lots of measures to increase level in India like presently we can see that in this budget the government has brought many schemes specially to increase the education level in India. People are getting more and more educated about how much the education is necessary for us. We can see that in many states there are not proper schools; parents want their children to study in school in metropolis city so that they can have a good education.

In gigantic cities like the metropolis people donâ€™t have sufficient time to look after their children, they are so workaholic that they could hardly get time to look after their child education. They generally want their children to study in good schools that can provide them with good education. There are many good public schools in Ashok Vihar.

School plays a very important role in a child life and the reason is that they are the only place where the child can have a proper education without much problem. Schools are the very first step towards education without education no one can stand anywhere in their life. There are international schools in Ashok Vihar which provides international level of education.

Nursery is the very first step towards education like itâ€™s a stepping stone to education. Without nursery education no child can reach any were. There are many nursery schools in Ashok Vihar.
