In a place like India which comes under developing nation education is one of the key elements to this place. Without proper education any country cannot have a proper growth, the required growth in fact. Hence, education keeps the same importance in our country also. If the child of our country is well educated then there is no stop to the upliftment and success of our country. Education is a power which can enhance power as well as the living status of all the place be it a society, town, state, country, institution or world.

If we go by the theoretical meaning of education then education in its broadest, general sense is the means through which the aims and habits of a group of people lives on from one generation to the next. Generally, it occurs through any experience that has a formative effect on the way one thinks, feels, or acts. In its narrow, technical sense, education is the formal process by which society deliberately transmits its accumulated knowledge, skills, customs and values from one generation to another, e.g., instruction in schools.

Education is not only limited to small children, education is very broad in its means and it is not at all only for children. Education is something which never ever comes to an end you can study as much as you wish to study. There is no barrier for education, you can be of any age, sex, color, creed and you can have an infinite access to education. In this phase of education there is a very big help which comes from educational institutes that is the schools. School plays a very important role in educating the masses. Without the help of good education it is so not possible.

Traditionally we can see that there was a different style of education. There were Gurukul where the parents use to send their children for education and the children use to stay there for a certain age and study all things required to make them good in the work they were supposed to do. Then slowly and steadily there were many changes in the education style. After the India invasion there came many changes in the education style in India. Like there were new look of studying at home too but that was only for some time. Whatsoever in the present scenario we can see that there are schools are playing a big role in education. Now the children go to school to complete their education. With the help of interne there has been a boost in online schooling also.

In gigantic cities like the metropolis such as Delhi we can find many schools which are helping out children with education and country with promising future. We can find good nursery schools in Noida as well as we can find public schools in Noida too. There are many international schools in Noida too which are helping in education.
