Most of the people fall under perplexing situation when they encounter sudden arrest. Even, many of them are less exposed to the bail bonds and its process. However, if a request is made on bail is applied then it is necessary to know the complete procedure without getting frustrated. Bail Bond agents play an important role in the procedure and offer their friendly and experienced services to the people. They also help explain the different steps involved in bail. They make themselves available for detailed discuss any related issues including misdemeanor, bail bond process etc. with you.

Bail bond agencies provide experienced bondsman that can help in immediate posting of bail for all types of criminal cases. However, the amount of bail required for release from jail varies accordingly (severity of the crime), typically depending on the nature of the alleged offense and criminal background of the defendant. Bail may or may not be needed in misdemeanor cases, depending upon the circumstances and graveness of the offense.

Bail may come into play at three stages of a criminal proceeding:

1. During the pre-trial period

2. Pending imposition or execution of sentence

3. Pending appeal of a conviction or sentence

Moreover, if you can make a bond (by securing money to for your guaranteed release), then you will be released from jail, but only if you have no other pending or yet to cleared by you. Even unpaid traffic punishment tickets can cease the procedure and can hinder the progress. However, if you cannot make a bond, post bail or fail to qualify for pretrial release, then you have to be behind the bars while your case is pending.

Most of the time, if you have been able to make a bond successfully with your bondsman, then you can expect to hire an experienced attorney to represent you and make your case strong enough to put forth before the court. However, if you can prove that you are poor and cannot afford to hire an attorney, then you can have the opportunity to have a lawyer appointed by the court itself. The court may ask for the total cost of the representation afterwards.

In crux, experienced and licensed bailbond agents can help defendants anytime after being arrested in any circumstances. They help at every stage of the process & clarify the legal proceedings in the simplest terms. They make the complete procedure as easy and convenient as possible.
