Article published on February 27th 2012 | Law

In case of divorce the property is divided into both parties, which is between husband and wife. The field of property settlement deals with the division of property between husband and wife. There are following aspects which are handled by a Property Settlement Lawyer:

The issue of children

Settlement of funds

Maintenance of spouse

â€¢ The issue of children: This is the most vital aspect that is related with divorce and that is the upkeep of the children. The responsibility of the children is given to either mother or father, but preference is given to mother. The mother taking Children into her custody can demand funds from the father of the children. The Family law lawyers are apt enough to sort out any issue of upkeep, associated with children.

â€¢ Settlement of the funds: The topic of funds is also significant one. The divorced wife can claim the funds from the husband. The law makes it mandatory that the husband gives funds to their divorced wives as a sort of compensation. This is also applicable on the wives also.

â€¢ Maintenance of spouse: The aspect of laying claim on funds for maintenance of a spouse is also very vital one. The divorced husband can seek funds from wife and share in the property also for maintenance. This applies also for the wife too. The Divorce Lawyers are fully trained to carry out the practical procedure which is required for getting divorced.

After a period of twelve months the divorced parties can lay claim on spouse maintenance and settlement of funds. The court tries to make a decision which is suitable for both husband and wife. Melbourne family Lawyers are always there to offer their services to its clients.

The divorce lawyers give their client genuine and best service related with the field of divorce. There are well defined and clear cut Melbourne family law that is very much helpful for those seeking divorce. These laws are made in such a way that they are compatible for both parties. First of all the counselor tries to bring both parties on a common platform and try to sort out their dispute. The counselor tries his best to convince the husband and wife to give up the idea of divorce, but in case he fails the divorce case is followed through in the court.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/law-articles/looking-into-the-field-of-property-settlement.htm - Article Side

Amber Dorsch - About Author:
Amber Dorsch writes about a Melbourne family Lawyers . To know more details about a Property Settlement Lawyer just visit at http://www.bkl.com.au/

Article Keywords:
Family law lawyers, Melbourne family law, Property Settlement Lawyer, Divorce Lawyers

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!