Article published on March 3rd 2012 | Loans

Being unemployed can be a great drawback while borrowing cash. Not having a job can be a main reason for loan application rejection. During times when you need monetary help and you have no job in hand, you can apply at Bad Credit Tenant Loans.

Loans for unemployed tenants are special loans for tenants who are unemployed and are in need of cash immediately to fix minor but important financial issues. No complicated terms and conditions involved in the loan process.

You do not have to visit us in person or carry documents or fax lengthy paper work. You just have to fill in an online application form. The information asked in the application form is just basic information. So you donâ€™t have to visit banks and waste your time or your resources to apply. You can apply from your home or work place just by a click.

The eligibility criteria include:

â€¢ You must have a permanent citizenship of the United Kingdom

â€¢ You must be of 18 years and above

â€¢ You must be currently employed

â€¢ You must hold an active bank account

Your bad credit record due to CCJs, IVAs, bankruptcy, nonpayment, arrears etc will not be an obstacle to your loan approval. Loans for unemployed tenants are especially made for borrowers with negative credit scores and are also unemployed.

You can loan an amount of pound100 to pound1500. The loan amount though small is a really feasible way to attend to all your short term needs that require immediate attention. The repayment term would be 14 to 30 days. With us you can enjoy the advantage of flexible repayment options.
