The UK money lender also needs a guarantor who can take the guarantee of the person applying for loan. And if you donâ€™t have the guarantor it is very hard to avail the loan because many money lenders donâ€™t give loans to the people who donâ€™t provide a person who can give their guarantee. Bu many lenders are providing loans without any guarantee, so people lacking in that feature can apply online and go for a loan any time. Money lenders also demand some documents which are very important in getting loan and people are always unable to procure all the documents demanded, but you can apply online for a loan without or less document easily.
