If you are going to attend your best friend's birthday celebration this weekend, you would be worried what to gift him or her. You can give any gift to your friend, but when you gift a mobile phone, it becomes the best gift, because it reduces the distance between you both. It establishes a better communication between you and connects you on the social networks anytime from anywhere. Thus a mobile handset has become a very popular gift item among people.

Now the question arises how much budget do you have for a lovely gift? If you have a big budget, you can purchase very good mobile handsets with sophisticated applications. New mobile handsets have very good memory and perform almost all functions of a computer; they capture very good quality images and create attractive videos. These mobiles entertain you by enabling you to listen to music and show you online videos through internet.

All social media applications including Face book and Twitter are available on your mobile handset. All online shopping stores are launching their mobile commerce websites, so you can buy and sell goods and services from your mobile handsets. The better features you want in your mobile handset, the higher cost you have to pay for it.

If you want a good mobile to your friend but you don't have sufficient money for it, don't worry. You only have to bring some old mobile handsets from the drawer of your room and have to sell them to get back some cash. Yes, you can sell cell phones for cash.

You can sell cell phones for cash them online and can get as much as $ 125 for each mobile handset, which you sell online. The money you get back reduces the difference between the cost of new mobile handset and your budget. It enables you to purchase a better mobile handset for your friend.

From an online store, you can get cash for phone. When you purchase a new mobile handset online, you can exchange your old mobile handset and pay the difference amount and in this way you can save your time because you don't have to go out in the local market. Buying and purchasing cell phone online is very easy. You just have to look the price of your cell phone's model and then have to send it to website's office. It sends you money back.
