Two months ago, in the month of January, the launch of Motorola DEFY MINI was announced at the Consumer Electronics Show. As per the promise, it is now available for the purchase in UK. Presently, it is available at UK phone retailer Clove. You can buy its SIM free variant at the retail prices of £162 including VAT. The users seeking abatement may wait for some time and can buy it from Amazon.co.uk, on which the gadget will be available at the prices of £154.99.

The Motorola DEFY MINI is the mini version of Motorola DEFY+. You get some ruggedness in this device with water and dust protection. It is built around a 3.2" HVGA display, on top of which you get a layer of Gorilla Glass. The handset comes powered by a modest 600MHz CPU. Moreover, it has 512 MB of RAM, and a dual-band 3G with display. Bluetooth 2.1 connectivity is available for transferring the data to other gadgets wirelessly. For the purpose of connecting internet, you get Wi-Fi and GPRS. You also find GPS for locating the way, or knowing about significant landmarks at unknown destinations. It has 3 MP camera with fixed focus and LED flash. The gadget runs on Android (Gingerbread) interface.

As mentioned above also, the gadget is presently available as SIM free cell phones, but after some days, you may be able to get it under contract offers or pay as you go plans. Under these plans, you may get various discounts in the form of several offers. The offers like free talk time minutes, free text messages, free connection, cashback offers, and reduced or free line rental etc. may be taken as instances in this respect.

Besides, some free gifts are also provided to the users under many of the plan, which are often the technology products such as laptop, LCD TV, and many more. Which gifts will be available under the deals on Motorola DEFY MINI, you may know about it from online retailers and comparison portals, after the availability of the contracts. On the other hand, some offers may be provided to you under pay as you go plans also such as some free usage, and more. But, if you don't find this device with your desired scheme or carrier then the option to buy the gadget as SIM free device will be open for you. You can get it right now also and can use it with your favourite network provider by purchasing a SIM only deal.
