The Samsung Galaxy Y S5360 is a classy Smartphone, which is liked by all users. Its great phone approved by masses. Nevertheless, you will like the phone to be in your hands anyway; itâ€™s just that one needs the right place to start. This phone has ample of functional and exclusive features.

The Samsung Galaxy Mobile is just above the mere dumb phones. It is really a big step and you will not take much time to understand its functionalities. Android phones are friendly, especially when they are in a package and these Smartphoneâ€™s are highly addictive having much more to explore.

The Galaxy Y is mostly the 1st Smartphone for some people. It is not expensive so one does not have to ask if all the features are required. One must be wondering the features are so good, how can one actually live without them.

Samsung Galaxy Y S5360 is not full of latest tech features, rather the functions are kept very simple and neat to enjoy at reasonable price. There is a set of full range preinstalled apps having complete connectivity set. The Android 2.3.5 Gingerbread is a surprise but is very fast processor. It is the basic Smartphone which looks updated with technology.

Quad-Band GSM with the 3G support having dual band are the key features. Other include 7.2 Mbps HSDPA, TFT touch screen 3â€• 256K-color QVGA, 290MB RAM having ARMv6 830MHz processor with Touch Wiz UI. The Smartphone has 160MB internal memory storage, which has 2GB card that is MicroSD slot that is hot-swappable. There is the geotagging feature having 2MP fixed camera.

A-GPS having the GPS receiver is incorporated in the phone. The phone also has Document viewer, 3.5mm audio jack, proximity sensor and Accelerometer, Swype text input, MicroUSB port having the Bluetooth 3.0 with Social integration.

But in the Smartphone there are also some disadvantages like limited apps choice, poor screen resolution and fixed focus camera, no touch screen, no secondary camera with no dedicated camera key and no flash having QVGA 15fps video recording, no Adobe support with no earphones bundle.

No award for this Smartphone in performance and innovation is just on the bright side! This Smartphone offers complete experience within budget. The phone mainly focuses on the social network and connectivity.

Samsung Galaxy Y S5360 price is Rs. 6649/- in Indian market having the sub-par imaging and screen resolution with inevitable compromises.
