The iPhone is the latest gadget to hit the market and those who can afford it obviously take great pride in it. But this device is now made more attractive by the iPhone waterproof case. By buying this waterproof case, you will be able to double your fun with your iPhone as it enables you to take pictures and make videos 6 feet inside water!

This waterproof cover has a clear membrane of silicon which makes it possible for the touch screen to function even inside water and at the same time keeps your phone so safe that you can make calls or send texts to your friends, narrating your wonderful experiences while still inside water. These iphone 4 cases have been developed by ECO from Aryca. All you have to do is turn the latch and shift the top cover to the left side which will make the gap to put your iPhone in..

It costs just around $40 and for such amazing features, it is worth a buy. In fact, it is already receiving rave reviews from water sports enthusiasts who like taking pictures underwater but always had to opt for expensive cameras which often went out of budget. Apart from these, the regular iphone 4 cases are also available which protect your iPhone 4 from everyday dirt and pollution and also helps the screen from scratching. And some are also jerk proof so no need to worry if your phone drops to the floor. They are available at around $50 and make your iPhone look more stylish.

So make a new style statement with these amazing waterproof cases and make heads turn.
