Affordable Odissi Dance Institution in Kolkata by Shayomita

Article published on December 1st 2011 | Music

Kolkata is the epitome of art and culture of eastern India and is considered as a platform of all performing artists in the field of art, dance, music, theatre and literature. The Odissi dance institute in Kolkata shares an extensive space in the field of conventional style of dance.

Odissi is regarded as one of the eighth classical dance form and is also the oldest existing form of dance style. It originated in the state of Orissa and spread far and wide through generations. There are basically two institutions of odissi dance in Kolkata: the Mahari style and the Gotipua style. These are considered as a compilation of aesthetic style with nominal detailing. Odissi dance was presented at various temples all over Orissa and its ancient engravings can be witnessed in the temples and monuments. The musical instruments that accompany the dancers are pakhwaj or the madal. The basic necessary things required for dance teacher in Kolkata are tabla, mridangam, manjira, bamboo flute and the tanpura.

A dance teacher in Kolkata needs to be highly educated in the field of odissi dancing and performing arts. With a degree in dance and arts, teachers will be able to guide and impart education to her pupils. The child develops personality and learns to interact socially. They are fortunate to have a well learned teacher who instructs odissi dance in Kolkata and it helps them to achieve confidence and remove stage fears while performing in front of audience. The odissi dance institutes in Kolkata have elaborate structured routines and rigorous training helps them to serve the students better through their achievements as an adult. The reputed institutes in Kolkata have an extensive place for learning with well equipped musical instruments. A dance teacher in Kolkata will make the pupil rehearse properly with extensive rehearsals and dexterity.

The odissi dance institute in Kolkata primarily should have a beautiful hall or an open space for free movement. There should be no obstruction of any kind and the surroundings needs to be quiet and aesthetically beautiful. The dance teacher in Kolkata cultivates the various forms of dance movements and techniques to become a star performer. They keep up with the new moves and patterns of dance and do extensive research over traditional techniques. The odissi forms a vital part of the various dancing techniques and is widely practiced by many Bengalis in Kolkata and all over the world. This dance is practiced by many schools and provides necessary certificate after one graduateâ€™s. The invocation piece always starts with paying homage to the Lord Jagannath by a hymn in praise of the lord. Then the dancers salutes to the Mother earth and then his or her guruji and last, the audience.

Original form of the odissi dance, is a very controversial issue as it is believed to have originated from tantrism , that had thrived in Orissa. Odissi dance teacher in Kolkata performs the similar way as itâ€™s done elsewhere in India. Dexterity is shown in the feet movement with the ebb and lows of taal and laya. There are quite a few dancers in Kolkata who have opened a dancing school for the pupils and also impart the tradition to the next generation.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/music-articles/affordable-odissi-dance-institution-in-kolkata.htm - Article Side

Shayomita - About Author:
Shayomita is very famous dancer in Kolkata, who has performed on many platforms and earned high acclamations. Shayomita Dasgupta is the most famous a Odissi dance in Kolkata. Donâ€™t miss the great opportunity to get in touch with her is Odissi dance is your passion. Visit a http://www.shayomitasodissidance.com/ and drop a line of feedback.

Article Keywords:
Odissi dance institute in Kolkata, Dance teacher in Kolkata

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!