Five Great Reasons to Hire a D.J. for You Next Event by Daryl Ledyard

Article published on December 12th 2011 | Music

Whether youâ€™re coordinating a wedding, hosting a holiday party, or organizing a corporate event, hiring a Disc Jockey will be one of the best decisions you make in ensuring the success of your event. Here are just a few of the many reasons why:

1. They will come prepared with an extensive music collection, a strong knowledge of the songs that will appeal most to your guests and the skill necessary to smoothly transition from one song to the next in order to keep your guests out on the dance floor.

2. You will never have to worry about consistent, high-quality sound. Your disc jockey will know and use all of the best brands of Pro Audio equipment available to provide the clearest, most crisp sound. They will bring all of their own equipment, set it up in the safest, most efficient manner and be prepared with a fully assembled backup system in case of any unexpected equipment failures.

3. They can provide great visual entertainment with the use of colorful LED lights and fog machines, to further encourage guests to remain on the dance floor. In some instances, they can even provide video equipment to screen presentations or photomontages.

4. A D.J. can do much more than play music. They can introduce your guests, narrate video presentations, provide toasts, introduce contests, encourage guests to dance, mingle or just have fun. They are great public speakers that know how to engage any crowd in their first language and put them at ease so they can focus on enjoying themselves.

5. You can easily find one who will fit your budget. In fact, there are online agencies that allow you to search for a disc jockey based on whatever you can afford, and you can bet, theyâ€™ll be much cheaper than hiring a full band.

While all of these are great reasons, perhaps the best reason to hire a D.J. is that they will take the pressure off of you so you can focus on your guests. Between spinning tunes, emceeing activities and putting on a great light show, your disc jockey will bear the bulk of the responsibility of entertaining your guests, leaving you free to enjoy yourself and make lasting memories.
