JLS Tickets and Tour Dates by Dipakdarji

Article published on January 14th 2012 | Music

JLS is one of the recent success stories in British pop. After finishing fifth in ITV's X Factor in 2008, the four piece boy band previously known as UFO signed a record deal and released a couple of songs which went straight to number one in domestic and international charts. Beat Again and Everybody in Love turned music lovers on and set the grounds for a highly successful, self-titled debut album, in late 2009.

As any respectful pop band out there, JLS is touring extensively throughout the year, but always has some time set aside for creating new material. JLS has an international fan base, with major fan centers in Europe, the US and Asia, these being prime locations for the JLS tour for 2012. The fan base is so massive that the band regularly sells out tickets way before the concert date, so in order to get your place in line, you should consider buying tickets online. JLS tickets sold via the internet are usually cheaper and much easier to obtain than those selling at the box office. Also, buying tickets online is instant, while getting them from the box office might take hours, considering how big queues are for their concerts.

In order to find out JLS Tour Dates, you should check major ticket websites or fan sites. For 2012, JLS has in line concerts in all major British cities, sometimes spending a week in the same one, with concerts every couple of days. So if you are a fan of Aston, Oritse, Jonathan and Marvin, make sure you buy your JLR ticket online and sit tight while the concert date gets close.
