We are Best Folk Singer in West Bengal by Maitreyee Roychowdhury

Article published on May 29th 2012 | Music

Lush green paddy fields, small bamboo huts, calm and quite atmosphere, all this actually creates an image of a rural area in our minds! Today, many people from the villages are migrating towards cities in search of better livelihood options. This has adversely affected the rich cultural heritage of our country. The traditions and cultural norms that our ancestors use to follow have lost their existence in the sands of time. Just like various long forgotten customs, our folk music too is dying away with each passing day. Thanks, to the unique initiative undertaken by some of the leading Bangla Band in Kolkata, that once again the rural melodies are becoming popular in the hearts of the urban population of the city.

The artists of the Bangla band in Kolkata mix various melodies of folk and â€˜baulâ€™ with various western instruments. They also experiement blending the soulful melodies of Rabindra Sangeet with fusion beats. This kind of fusion music is becoming increasing popular amongst the young generation of Kolkata. A lot of effort is also being put in by some of the dedicated folk artist of the state to preserve the folk music. A talented Folk Singer in West Bengal tries to connect the audience with their roots and culture. The charisma in their voice can simply cast a spell on the listeners.

These folk singers have put in a lot many years of their lives to master their skills of folk singing. But, sadly, these artists are not being paid really well in the music industry. This sometimes compels them to give-up folk singing. Folk singing became majorly popular during the end of nineteenth century. This category of music has survived all these years, because of the efforts put-in by the folk singers. Through their singing, they try to create awareness amongst the listeners about various aspects of society. This rich music tradition is passed down from generation to generation.

Each generation of folk singers add their own unique style and touch to present the age old folk music in a new way. Folk singers perform live during certain special occasions. People from far and wide gather to witness and enjoy their splendid performance. Their songs are a true reflection of the village society and culture. Many folk artists have also performed in other countries, at various prestigious functions as well. These talented folk singers of our state have earned glory and laurels for the country.

The contribution made by the Folk Singers in West Bengal for keeping the folk music alive is simply commendable. To become a talented, singer, musician or dancer, one has to put in dedication and sincere efforts. It is not at all easy to go up on the stage and perform in-front of several hundreds of music lovers. To win the hearts of music enthusiasts one has to polish their talent and skills. The leading Bangla Band in Kolkata, usually perform live at various cultural events in the city. The beautifully blend the music of their soil with fusion beats to mesmerize the audiences.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/music-articles/we-are-best-folk-singer-in-west-bengal.htm - Article Side

Maitreyee Roychowdhury - About Author:
Maitreyee Roychowdhury is an eminent a bangla band in Kolkata. Her versatile talent is not restricted to Tagore songs alone, as she is also associated with a Rabindra Sangeet Singer in Kolkata. A real musical personality, her talent is acclaimed by many an expert in the industry.

Article Keywords:
Folk Singer in West Bengal, Bangla Band in Kolkata

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!