Meet women during the day by Prateek Thakar

I started meeting women during the day about a year ago. When I first started I just couldn't do it. I knew there were guys in London doing it and meeting great girls, taking them out and dating them.

During the day, you aren't around a million other distractions like a club (the dance floor, her friends, drink, and other guys). It's just pure you. It's raw and unfiltered, you have to be yourself - you have no other option. It's just you and the pure air. When I first started, I could barely approach and ask directions. Believe me, I was utterly fear ridden. The thought of approaching a woman on the street would turn me into a bag of nerves.

The thing that got me most was the fact in London, people don't speak to each other that much and it was just socially unacceptable. But, I've now come to the opinion that it's not acceptable to live your life in a shell whereby you are constrained by stupid rules - most of which are made up in your head.

WHY WOULDN'T YOU TELL A WOMAN SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL WHEN YOU SAW HER?

The notion seems ridiculous not to now. It's now just part of my daily habits and I meet some lovely, interesting women by doing so. Rejection on the street doesn't bother me anymore.

In London, there is a company that will show you how to approach a woman on the street and what to say after you've stopped her. These guys have years of experience doing this and if you went out on your own you would take years trying to work out how to get things right. Getting information from them saves you a lot of time and stress.

How would you even attempt to go about it on your own? I have personally used these guys and I don't know where I would be without them. I found that meeting women during the day to be the best way to meet women as you women really appreciate you being real and it's also pretty romantic.

Sure, if you're a busy boy then online dating or speed dating may be a better option. If you have a bit of time on your hands, or even weekends then I'd recommend looking into meeting women during the day. You learn a lot of skills for attracting women quickly so that when you go on dates, everything is going to be much easier for you (if you decide to meet women in other ways too).

If you want to quickly learn a lot of information about how to stop a woman on the street then I would personally recommend this product (which I have bought and used).

The product is called Day game Blueprint.

You will find a lot of products with regard to meeting women are called 'game'. I don't really like the notion of 'game'. I don't think there is any game. I think there are games to play when you are not with the girl and you have to text or call her, then, games come into play. Not all girls will play, but most will.

This is why you need to know about 'text and phone' game. The Day game Blueprint is a foolproof guide of how to meet women during the day. This could be meeting girls who are:

- Walking in the street

- Standing at a bus stop

- In a bookshop

- In the gym

Basically anywhere! The products main focus is how to stop women who walk past you, what you say to her first and then carry on the conversation to get her number and meet her again. For me, it's probably the most useful skill to have on earth and will answer the Top Questions â€“ How Do I Get a Girlfriend ?

It also translates into other areas of your life. You'll find yourself being more sociable with other people; your friends will see you are more confident, you'll take on a whole new belief system.

Can you think of a better social skill than being able to stop a woman anywhere, anytime and get her phone number and meet her again?
