The Six Important Actions to Take Immediately After a Car Accident by Smanuva123

Article published on May 4th 2012 | Others

The Fort Lauderdale accident attorneys at Levine and Glassman PA urge you to be aware of the critical actions that you should take in the immediate aftermath of a car accident.

When you have been involved in an auto, truck, or motorcycle accident in Fort Lauderdale or the Southeast Florida area (or anywhere in the United States) you should take these 6 important actions immediately for your future protection and to maximize the value of your car insurance claim or lawsuit case:

Take pictures and obtain witness contact information-if you have access to a camera, whether it is your cell phone or an actual camera, take photographs of both the accident scene and the vehicles involved in the car accident.

In addition, write down the names and phone numbers of any witnesses to the accident. This information may be crucial to developing a strong insurance claim or lawsuit case.

Also, call The Fort Lauderdale accident attorneys at Levine and Glassman immediately and we can photograph the cars and accident scene for you.

Seek prompt medical attention-it is important to see a qualified medical doctor for treatment of your bodily injuries as soon as possible after your car accident. This will also provide Fort Lauderdale insurance companies with the necessary documentation of your injuries for an auto insurance claim.

The Fort Lauderdale accident attorneys at Levine and Glassman can help you locate a doctor if needed.

Do NOT discuss the accident-do not talk to anyone associated with the insurance company about your case.

Fort Lauderdale insurance companies are in the business of avoiding claim payments and they may attempt to twist your statements in order to deny you compensation. Remember, insurance companies make money by not paying claims.

The Fort Lauderdale accident attorneys at Levine and Glassman are always available to assist you with an awareness of your needs and how the law affects you.

Do NOT sign any accident-related documents-you should not sign any document containing a release of your claims or give a recorded statement to anyone.

Remember the insurance companies are not on your side-the insurance companies are your opponents after a car accident in Fort Lauderdale. They have teams of highly trained lawyers, adjusters, and investigators and may be working right now to gather facts about your Fort Lauderdale car accident in an attempt to deny or minimize the value of your claim.

The Fort Lauderdale accident attorneys at Levine and Glassman are always available to assist you with an awareness of your needs and how the law affects you.

Contact the experienced Fort Lauderdale car accident attorneys at the Levine & Glassman Offices- call for a consultation as quickly as possible.

We can greatly strengthen your case by properly preserving the evidence and acquiring witness statements and affidavits.

It is imperative that we contact accident witnesses as soon as possible before they forget accident details or the other side's insurance company contacts them.
