India is a great country with huge landscapes everywhere you raise your eye while on your tour to India but here also you can find state like Goa that is smallest by all measures as far as India is considered. With capital Panajim, Goa tourism welcomes you to be a part of this state and its heritage of rich cultures and traditions. Well connected by trains, Goa is also reached by Air, as many domestic and International flights have their services here. Goa is perceived as a state with influence and populace from Christianity but that is not the truth. Majority of the Goan population is Hindu. But this fact is not of any concern to a traveler who has time of 4 to 5 days to get refreshed once more to take challenges of his life.

People who have already had a piece of Goa tourism by taking a ride in the bus that would take you to all the popular places like beaches, temples, museums, churches, forts and wild life sanctuary, it is time to explore for what is not shown during that ride. Goa is not exactly what it is known for. Goa is best viewed in its primitive form that is found in the hard working life of villages of Goa. Greenery of those rustic lands will touch your eyes and melt your heart. People of villagers might not give you a nightlife but they most welcoming and friendly in hosting. While in tour to India, this is one thing that would be common to everywhere.

Well, despite all the things are available for a traveler in Goa, beaches steal most of the attention while you are on your holiday here. You would find yourselves among those who are not hesitating for a while to get a taste of minor adventures. They are trying out fun activities like Paragliding, Jet-Skiing, Banana ride, etc. Goa tourism doesnâ€™t very specifically highlights that but they are still there for adventurous people. Tour to India will have a lasting impact on any traveler with places like Goa.

Do not forget your loved ones when you are here busy enjoying Goa, on cruises or on shore of the sea. Local drinks of Goa are quite popular amongst tourists as gifts to take back as a souvenir from Goa. Goa tourism also highlights the medical qualities of these drinks. Chasew Feni and Coconut Feni are among these drinks and are well appreciated by people. Tour to India will always have variety of food to brag about. Be one of them!
