Article Side

Chill out in summers in beautiful San Diego by David Miller

Article published on May 30th 2012 | Outdoors

Blazing sun, scorching heat usually keep people indoors. But the San Diego city makes sure that its people and visitors come out and have a good time even in these super hot summers. Three events are going to take place in the city in the month of June which will surely chill you out.

SeaWorld Summer Nights

As the kids schools are closed and summers are in full swing, Sea World has opened its gates for nighttime shows. The superb SeaWorld Summer Nights will begin from 6th June and continue till 3rd September, 2012.

After dark, Sea World completely transforms into a wonderful land where you can watch unique nighttime only shows and fireworks displays. As Shamu-the killer whale is the major draw of the SeaWorld, watching the 'Shamu Rocks' show is a must.

Want to have a ROFL (rolling on the floor laughing) moment? Then do attend the Sea Lions Tonite where sea lions- Sea more and Clyde will keep you in splits with their funny acts. End the day with scintillating 'Into the Blue fireworks display. SeaWorld Summer Nights is a great way to have good time with friends and family. Do attend it, if you are on a San Diego vacation in June.

33rd Annual Ocean Beach Street Fair & Chili Cook-Off Festival

Every year on the 4th Saturday in June, a large number of people come to Newport Ave. and surrounding areas to attend the exciting Ocean Beach Street Fair & Chili Cook-Off Festival on 23rd June, 2012. This event promises LIVE music, skilled artists enthralling audience, a beer garden to chill out and lots of entertainment.

It is a FREE event which guarantees lots of fun. You can buy unique items from vendors, gorge on delicious food, listen to good music and enjoy your mug of beer. Since the 33rd Annual Ocean Beach Street Fair & Chili Cook-Off Festival celebrates the 125th anniversary of Ocean Beach this year, it is going to be much more special and fun this time. Don't miss it!

San Diego County Fair

This year's, San Diego County Fair is going to be even more entertaining. This time the highlight would be â€œOut Of This Worldâ€• exhibition where visitors can explore the world of science fiction and learn about the wonders of the universe. San Diego County Fair will start from 8th June and go on till 4th July, 2012 at Del Mar Fairgrounds.

Don't go to this event on Mondays as the fair will be closed on Mondays except 2nd July, 2012. Apart from â€œOut Of This Worldâ€• exhibition, you will find everything that is characteristic of San Diego County Fair i.e. strange food items, around 80 fun rides and exhibitions. You can check out â€œDesign in Woodâ€• exhibit which displays great creations made from wood, or a Flower & Garden Show, a photography exhibition and so much more.

With so many exciting things happening in San Diego in June, it is better to stay in a San Diego lodging from where you can quickly Del Mar Fairgrounds, SeaWorld and various other destinations. There are a number of budget hotels in San Diego which offer good quality accommodation and services. Check these out to get a better deal.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/outdoors-articles/chill-out-in-summers-in-beautiful-san-diego.htm - Article Side

David Miller - About Author:
David Miller is a well known author who writes extensively on various events, cultural festivals and a San Diego lodging which offers good facilities at affordable prices. His articles serve as informative guides to visitors who are on a San Diego vacation and looking for an affordable hotel in San Diego to stay in.

Article Keywords:
san diego vacation, hotels in san diego, san diego lodging

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!