Florida RV Camping â€“ Jacksonville Campgrounds for Winter

by William Burk

Article published on December 7th 2011 | Outdoors

The largest urban park system in USA is operated by Jacksonville. The area also offers a host of natural beauty, making it one of the most popular destinations for RV camping. Jacksonville offers several RV campgrounds. In this article we will discuss about a few of these RV camping sites that offer a great deal of facilities for campers. Both of the Florida campgrounds are rated as â€œThe Best of the Bestâ€• RV campgrounds by Woodall's and are close to the Jacksonville International Airport. However, these two parks have their own character and have something unique to offer to their guests.

Pecan Park RV Resort is one of the newest Florida campgrounds of Florida-Georgia border area. It offers a beautiful pine wooded backdrop and water views. This RV campground is known to provide modern-day luxuries and a down-home hospitality for their guests. Pecan Park RV Resort is close to Exit 366 off Interstate 95 and Jacksonville International Airport and River City Marketplace are just two blocks away. This Florida campground also offers easy access to numerous tourist attractions of the area including Yellow Bluff Fort Historic Park, Talbot Islands State Park, Jacksonville Zoo, Ghost Town in St. Augustine, and Jacksonville Beaches.

There are around 183 RV camping sites in this park. And all these sites come with full hookups, which include 20/30/50 amp electric services, sewer, city water, cable TV, and Wi-Fi. The spaces are concrete and oversized to accommodate the largest recreational vehicles that drive into the city. The stuff of this Florida campground can also help guests to wash their recreational vehicles. In addition, this RV campground offers picnic areas, swimming pool, fishing lakes, clubhouse, patio and barbeque grills. There is an on-site dump station and RV storage. Propane is also available. The mini store of Pecan Park RV Resort caters all the requirements of the RVers during their stay. For cater the business requirements of their guest, This RV camping ground has an on-site meeting room. Guests are allowed to select site prior to their arrival through the online Resort Map of Pecan Park RV Resort.

Another Florida campground that deserves a mention is Flamingo Lake RV Resort, located in North Jacksonville. This RV campground too is a few block away from Jacksonville International Airport and is 10 minutes drive away the Alltel Stadium. It is an easy access from Interstate 295 at Exit 32. In spite of being close to many dining and shopping destinations, this RV campground offers a great escape for campers who want leave behind the city chaos. Flamingo Lake RV Resort is surrounded by a spring fed lake and covers around 50 acres. This RV camping ground is often referred as to one of the finest campgrounds in South.

Flamingo Lake RV Resort features 288 sites, which can accommodate both 45' recreational vehicles and small pop-ups. There are lake view site, paved luxury lake front lots, lake-front lots, and luxury lake front lots. In addition, this RV campground has cabins and a condoport. All the RV camping sites are come with full hookup including 30 and 50 amp services, water, sewer, Wi-Fi and cable TV. Some of the sites also have phone hookups. For recreational purpose, this Florida campground offers swimming pool, playground, sandy beach, bonfire area, and fishing. It also features an on-site restaurant â€“ Sunrise CafÃ© and a camp store.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/outdoors-articles/florida-rv-camping-jacksonville-campgrounds-for-

William Burk - About Author:
William Burk, an experienced RVer and have written numerous articles and blogs on recreational vehicles, motorhomes, and a RV camping. To access more information about RVing, RV reviews, and RV campground details visit a http://www.thatsnotcamping.com/.

Article Keywords:
Florida campgrounds, RV camping, RV campgrounds, RV parks, recreational vehicles, RVers,

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!