Article published on March 31st 2012 | Outdoors

Goa located in the western coast of India is a prominent touristâ€™s destination. It is bounded by the Arabian Sea in the west, Maharashtra in the north, Karnataka on the east and the south. It is a favorite place for the tourists to travel as this tiny state is filled with all the enjoyments of life and is also on the top for its world class beaches. Goa is the most excellent beach destination which provides the tourists with new experiences and activities. It is completely different from the rest of India as we can find the perfect blend of east and west culture mixed together.

Honeymoon is the very special occasion in every oneâ€™s life so the destination chosen for this beautiful occasion should also be special and unique. Goa is a stunning place for honeymoon celebration as there are many interesting places to visit which is beyond imagination. Honeymoon in Goa will be a very good start to your new life as it is a very pristine place with serene and romantic environment full of natural beauties. This pristine land is blessed with miles and miles of excellent beaches, mighty mountains of Western Ghats, swaying palm trees and emerald green landscape which makes it a paradise on earth. It is gaining population throughout the world for weddings and honeymoon celebrations. It also provides the honeymooners with excellent arrangements of hotels and resorts according to their convenience. Honeymooners are always in search of seclusion and tranquility which they can get in the beaches of Goa and would be able to share their thoughts and preserve the memories in their minds forever which will always bring smile in their faces.

Honeymoon in the Goa beaches are the best destinations ever experienced by the honeymooners from around the places. Goa beach honeymoon is famous around the world as it provides the honeymooners with excellent ambiance where they can share their feelings. The north beaches are mostly famous for parties and enjoyment whereas the south beaches are best suited for the tourists who want to escape from the noise of the city life. It is an excellent place for the honeymooners as it offers a peaceful environment best suited for them. These relaxed beaches offers the couples with excellent ambiance where they can speak their heart out and dream about their wonderful future together. The swaying coconut trees and the cool breeze from the beaches create a romantic environment which invites thousands of loving couples to its shore.

Goa Packages are the best packages while travelling to Goa as it offers lots to the tourists and the visitors. It provides the tourists with all the important information regarding the interesting places in Goa. These packages also offers tour to many interesting places like the pristine beaches, swaying coconut trees, old monuments and forts, revered temples and churches, museums, towns and many other places too. It also provides the tourists with excellent wildlife and bird sanctuaries which are surrounded by both exotic and varied species of flora and fauna. The art galleries and the museums are also the source of attraction for the tourists.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/outdoors-articles/goa-the-most-contemporary-state-in-india.htm - Article Side

Kalpana - About Author:
Kalpana is an eminent analyst and writer and she has authored many articles for Travel and Tourism. Explore more information about Goa Tours at:

a Honeymoon in Goa
a Goa beach honeymoon
a Goa Packages

Article Keywords:
Honeymoon in Goa, Goa Beach Honeymoon, Goa Packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!