Article published on February 21st 2012 | Outdoors

India is a great country of diversity. It is internationally famous for its unique diverse cultural and geographical features. It has been an internationally famous destinations for cultural and heritage tourism in the world. One of the best ways to enjoy best charm of heritage tours in this country in via golden triangle tour that covers prominent tourist sites and heritage attractions at Delhi, Agra and Jaipur.

Golden Triangle is a prominent travel circuit in northern India and best known for cultural and heritage attraction. It would be a wonderful cultural journey in the region and you will have ample opportunities for seeing some of the best monuments of India featuring forts, palaces, temples, museums, etc. You will also come across some of the most sought after UNESCO world heritage sites of India during this tour.

The first destination of the journey is Delhi, the national capital of India. Delhi is a city of tourist delights. It is presents an outstanding amalgamation of modernity and traditional charm. There are many cultural and historical sites in this city including three UNESCO world heritage sites. Red Fort, Qutub Minar and Humayunâ€™s Tomb are world heritage sites in the city that attract travelers from all over the world. India Gate (a war memorial monument), President House, Parliament House, Teen Murti Bhawan and Secretariat Complex are magnificent buildings in the city which were constructed during the British rule in India. Lotus Temple, Jama Masjid, Chhatarpur Temple, Akshardham Temple, National Museum, Lodhi Gardens, Chandani Chowk, Connaught Place, etc are some other attractions of Delhi tourism.

Agra in Uttar Pradesh is the second destination for most Delhi Agra Jaipur Tour Package. It is an ancient and historical city of India and famous for its UNESCO world heritage sites like Taj Mahal, Agra and Fatehpur Sikri. Tourists from all over the world visit Agra to see magnificent monuments and historical sites. Itmad-Ud-Daullah Tomb, Sikandara Akbarâ€™s Tomb, Chini-Ka-Rauza, etc are other attractions to see during Agra tour.

Jaipur, the capital city of Indian state of Rajasthan, is the second destination of Delhi Agra Jaipur. Also known as the Pink City of India, it is drenched into royal grandeur and steeped into glorious past. It is also one of the well planned cities of India. It is famous for its magnificent monuments featuring forts, palaces, temples, havelis, museums and heritage & palace hotels. City Palace, Amber Fort, Hawa Mahal, Albert Hall Museum, Birla Temple and local bazaars are highlights of Jaipur tourism.

Indeed, golden triangle India is the best way to explore the best heritage sites of northern India.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/outdoors-articles/golden-triangle-tour-explore-heritage-of-north-india.htm - Article Side

Khushboo - About Author:
Author Bio:-

Khushboo Singh is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a Delhi Agra Jaipur and a golden triangle India.

Article Keywords:
Golden Triangle India, Delhi Agra Jaipur Tour Package, Delhi Agra Jaipur

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!