A few years ago, for making travel arrangements, one has to visit or get in touch with brick and mortar travel agency shops. You have to go personally and buy the required travel things from the shop. It was expensive as well since they charged their commission on the packages. But now things have changed. Once can make complete travel arrangements within few minutes sitting on your seat. You can check every detail online, make payment online through net banking, credit cards etc and get the air, bus, railways tickets, travel vouchers delivered to your email address.

Online travel agencies are the websites which make all your travel arrangements online. They have comparison of air flight fares, hotel quotes etc. You can book both domestic and international flights. You can make comparison of flight fare of all the major airlines flying from chosen source location to final destination location. You can check flight details including departure point, arrival point, and flight duration. You can change dates to see whether any more options open up. You can also see the refund policy of different airlines in case you need to change travel dates or cancel the holiday trip. You can book the required flight online and tickets will be delivered to your chosen email address.

You can also browse for hotels on the website. Both domestic and international hotel listing is available. You can check details of hotel like vicinity, facilities, services etc. You can refine your search on basis of different parameters like price range, star ratings, facilities available, hotel chain etc. You can also see the room charges per night per day for different types of rooms available in the hotel. Once satisfied, you can make the booking and hotel reservation vouchers will be delivered to you.

You can also browse through holiday packages for both domestic and international tours. There are numerous packages available. A typical package includes return flights, hotel accommodation, transfers, city tour, city guide etc. For international tours, online travel agency also can arrange visa required. You can also customize the holiday package as per your needs and requirements. You can change hotel class, opt for private vehicle etc. There are many holiday packages which are promoted during off season. You should keep an eye on them to get very economical and cheap deals. You can register on online travel agency website and make the payments.
