The Social - Working on Your Business Instead of Working in Your Business by Barry Fowler

Article published on August 6th 2012 | Positive Thinking

The social you are very busy every day to work in your business. Since networking client calls to accounting issues of marketing ideas. Etc. You are probably wondering how your business will grow. This is a common problem in business struggle between working in your business and work at your company. The buzz of being busy and running at breakneck speed can be addictive. The social we bombed the speed of technology. We have an incoming call. Email, instant messaging, and calendar events popping up on your smart phone we literally kept us wired to the operation. The question is how many of these activities actually produce any income from them are really activities to generate income? yes they all can eventually lead to a sale or strategic alliance.

But they also keep you working in your business. Let me tell you. The social your business is no problem. One of the most important thing you can do to be successful. Here is a great tip i learned many years ago. Schedule at least one or two hours a week to work strictly on your business. Not in it. The time schedule. The social if you do not plan to not have the time. It will never happen. Make it uninterrupted time. Make sure there are no other distractions. Disconnect the phone and email. Having the right atmosphere. The social you can easily and clearly. I think that you do this.

Make sure that a space. There is only legal note pad and pen. No computer can put distracted. Now ask yourself, what will it take to grow your own business? the most important thing to remember is absolutely free to think about. The social write down everything that comes to mind. Do not try to qualify these ideas. What i mean to qualify thought. As i have no time. Money or expertise to implement them. These are important early. The social remember the mind free to focus only. You can always figure out how to do something later. And it is more important to come up with nothing. As you will find ideas. Bill gates does not list all the reasons he could not build microsoft. He just started with the idea and then figured out how. This exercise is not easy. As this will have to "think hard". Which most people are not used to make. We are conditioned to think on the surface level. Successful people learn to "think twice" notice that i said learn. the social it is a skill that takes practice. And in order to exercise you. This time to defend some of the most valuable of the agenda. Realize this one thing and it can literally change your business.
