Article published on May 17th 2012 | Real Estate

If you are looking to buy Kelowna real estate or Okanagan real estate you surely want your property to be created with utmost care and professionalism.

You might want to renovate your house now that you are living in it for the past seven years. Again you want a Kelowna real estate agent who can give you the best value for money and create a fresh perspective of your living and lifestyle.

Surely you have given your house building or home renovation project much thought. You have clear idea on how many rooms you need, how big the kitchen and dining space should be, as to how will you use the living area. Now whether you are looking for renovating or creating you need the right real estate professional to give shape to your dream home.

Ken Umbarger and his construction firm have several years of experience in delivering quality construction projects for their distinguished client base in the Kelowna and Okanagan area. Ken is a through and seasoned professional who has spent numerous years in developing residential and commercial properties. After wards he started his construction company, where he employed his three sons and helped them learn and grow. When he started operation all the three sons were mere teenagers and Ken got the opportunity to train them through hands-on experience and also spend good amount of time with his sons. The sons made a head start with the company and together they learnt quite a bit about the real estate industry and strengthened their bond with each other as well. This experience put them in an advantageous position for future, when they make plans to renovate or construct their own houses or take a call to trade Okanagan property.

Ken happens to be a very hands-on person and like many a good professionals he too believes that to learn and excel you must first get your hands dirty. This philosophy and attitude of his is reflected in whatever he does, starting from his profession to the hobbies he nurtures to his family and community commitments. He believes in giving 100% to any project he undertakes and this attitude does not come as a surprise considering his professional exposure early in his career. He worked with Turbo and Texaco Canada and he was in charge of the sales, cross leases and development. His territory expanded throughout the province. This exposure comes in handy when he is dealing with Kelowna real estate. Over the years of sustained effort and delivering successful projects he has become a name to reckon with when it come to seeking guidance in investing in the fast growing Okanagan property industry.

He guarantees exceptional results in every project by utilizing his vast experience in the development and the construction industry and also his honest efforts in delivering as per the requirement of every client.

His in depth knowledge of the Kelowna real estate industry in the region gives his clients the advantage of optimizing and getting the best returns on their investment without have to spend much time, effort or money.

An outdoor person Ken enjoys all kinds of open-air games like boating, trail riding, ice hockey, golfing and skiing.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/real-estate-articles/build-the-home-of-your-dreams-with-expert-

Warner - About Author:
Ken Umbarger is a a Kelowna real estate agent of repute. He has several years of experience in helping out clients with a Kelowna real estate and a Okanagan real estate. An out and out outdoor person he derives great satisfaction in creating the homes from scratch.

Article Keywords:
Kelowna real estate, Kelowna real estate agent, Okanagan real estate

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!