Many boys move from their home towns and settle in temporarily in other cities to make their careers. Youth often move to metro cities like Delhi, Pune, Bangalore, Mumbai, Kolkata, Hyderabad and Chennai looking for the suitable jobs. They need a temporary accommodation in these cities. Suitable temporary arrangements are paying guest houses, hostels, room sharing with friends or colleagues and rental facilities in the city. As Delhi is the hub for all sorts of vocational and professional courses, it has become a patent destination for the students. Students need a proper concern and attention and need peaceful surroundings for study than the PG is only the best place for them.

These days paying guest accommodation has become the commonest for boys and girls. They provide both food and lodging facilities. One can be totally out of the tension of daily cooking and cleaning. I would definitely recommend for PGs because they are much convenient and suitable than hostels. Mainly for campus student, jobseeker and professional. In PG accommodation, one can only pay the monthly rental and house owner will manage all that needs to be done. The main objective of Pg accommodation is that youth get safe, secure, comfortable accommodation in metros. Many people from other states and cities come to Delhi in search of a better job.
