Playa Del Carmen Beachfront homes: Luxury living at affordable prices by Tom Budniak

Article published on December 13th 2011 | Real Estate

Playa Del Carmen is well known for its luxury beach lifestyle at very affordable prices. Playa Del Carmen real estate is well-priced considering the quality of lifestyle and luxury beachfront options available. Even though the Playa beachfront properties are quite reasonable when compared to other similar destinations, some buyers do not have the required budget. In most of these cases the truth is not that budget constraint but the fact that the buyers have not searched their options very well. The ground reality is that Playa del Carmen real estate offers a wide variety of home options.

Let's see what a typical luxury beachfront residence in Playa del Carmen offers. If it's Playa del Carmen we are talking about the beaches will be mentioned in the same breath. Beaches in Playa del Carmen are among the best in the world. A luxury beachfront property in a private community will have an exclusive shore to the impressively turquoise Caribbean Sea, overlooking stunningly white sandy beaches. These gated communities are very well located. They are just few minutes away from the heart of Playa del Carmen - 5th Avenue. In fact, you will be able to walk down to almost every famous spot in Playa. The majestic Mayan ruins are also within a short distance of Playa del Carmen which makes it very popular in the tourist circuit. Many of the developments have shopping areas, golf courses and a beach club which make them totally self-dependent when it comes to amenities and facilities. Playa Del Carmen condos provide hassle-free ownership with every conceivable modern amenities. They are as luxurious as a hotel, as comfortable as a spa. Playa gated communities are very accessible but still provide complete security and privacy. They offer the most wholesome and fulfilling lifestyle.

Some of the common facilities that the owner can expect are - Jacuzzis on Terrace and rooftop, splash pools for Ground floors. These condos also offer different kind of views such as ocean views or pool views. Kitchens are fully equipped with all amenities.

Beachfront communities also have restaurant, spa, state of the art fitness centre, poolside café to give you a taste of international beach lifestyle.

Since, Playa del Carmen is a tourist destination, vacation rentals are quite popular. For this reason many owners put their properties on rent for tourists. This way not only do they have holiday home in Mexico but also earn a steady income from rents. To make renting easy, the communities also have rental management services which allow you to relax without any stress.

Playa Del Carmen real estate is perfect whatever kind of a buyer you are: an investor, a retiree or a holiday home owner. Contact a knowledgeable and reputed real estate agent who can find a good deal according to your requirements.
