Get expert help with immigration to Canada and spousal sponsorship. Now, you can easily approach online professional companies who help you glide thought the immigration process smoothly! Hereâ€™s how you can get started and benefit from their explicit services.

Guidelines on Spousal Sponsorship

According to Canadian laws, you can sponsor your husband, wife, conjugal partner or a common law spouse for coming to Canada under Family Class category. However, the income requirements which need to be met in case you are sponsoring your parents /grandparents donâ€™t apply in case you apply for spousal sponsorship. This means that irrespective of income, you can bring your wife, husband, conjugal partner or even dependent children to Canada. There is no provision for sponsorship of fiancÃ© according to the latest Canadian immigration laws. According to the new system, it is penitent that you first get married before applying for sponsorship. Remember that the same rule as of spousal sponsorship applies to sponsorship of orphaned siblings who are still minors. Nowadays, the rules for bringing in your spouse have been revised and simplified to a great extent. This means that you donâ€™t have to really worry about getting your spouse to Canada because in genuine cases, chances of rejection are minimal.

Getting Refugee Status Canada

It is believed that the popular Canadian refugee scheme is advanced, claimant-friendly and one-of-a-kind in the whole world. The system is well premeditated to protect people who are met with cruelty, torture or any sort of unusual punishment at their home country or in the country that they are deported to. If you are fearful of returning to your home country, you are provided with a chance to file a refugee claim to the Immigration and Refugee Board. Itâ€™s highly advisable to hire a competent legal counsel with years of experience to help you in submitting required documents and claims for refugee status in Canada.
