ã€€ã€€Converse shoes have run a long way from their early days in Massachusetts, when they were produced at a rubber shoe-making company. From humble beginnings they have grown to be one of the world's most famous shoe brands, and have been worn by everyone from famous athletes, to musicians, and to models.

ã€€ã€€In spite of a lull in popularity, Converse has managed to remain in manufacture under the situation that they are not under the original owner and management format. They are shoes that can be worn by the famous: Kurt Cobain, Tom Morello, The Edge, Johnny Knoxville and Snoop Dog and babies, children, teenagers and adults alike. This is testament to not only their high quality but also their extreme flexibility and comfort. It may as well be due to the fact that they come in a multitude of colors and print designs. You can still purchase them in solid colors: black, white, red, blue, green, yellow and pink for example but it is not uncommon to see someone wearing them in stripes, houndstooth, sporting peace signs, swirls, cartoon characters, images of famous people or leopard print. It is little wonder that some have taken to collecting them as one does anything with so many choices at the ready.

ã€€ã€€The popularity of Converse Chuck Taylor All Star shoes came into limelight in the real sense in the 90s and since then it has been dominating in the market as a rock brand especially in the young generation.

ã€€ã€€These days, Converse has become a popular name and being worn by all including children, teenagers, and younger people. There are a number of varieties in this footwear in terms of color, lace, print style, sole, size, etc. Whether you are looking for womenâ€™s Converse shoes or menâ€™s we you can find a number of designer pieces in the market. These shoes are a fine example of the blend of trendy style with attractive colors.
